Numb. 665

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

THURSDAY January 25, 1739.

The SPEECH of the Honourable WILLIAM BULL Eſq; Preſident and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, to the Council and Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, met at Charles-Town, the 17th Day of Jan. 1739.

Hon. Gentlemen, and Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen.

IT is a great Concern to me to hear that there are ſome Remains of the Small-Pox ſtill in Charleſtown, notwithſtanding, that the Care and Endeavours of the Legiſlature has been employ'd to prevent it; as the Danger of that Diſtemper may deter ſome of his Majeſty's Council as well as ſeveral Members of the lower Houſe from attending the Seſſions. I ſhall therefore recommend only what is abſolutely neceſſary to be diſpatched for the Service of the Province.

The Deſertion of our Slaves, is a Matter of ſuch Importance to this Province, that I doubt not but you will readily concur in Opinion with me, that the moſt effectual Means ought to be uſed to diſcourage and prevent it for the future, and to render as ſecure as poſſible ſo valuable a part of the Eſtates and Property of his Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of this Province.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen.

The neceſſary Proviſion for the Service of the current Year I recommend to you, and ſhall order the Commiſſary General to lay before you an Account of the Charges ariſing by the late Viſit of the Cheſtaw and Chickeſaw Indians: The kind Entertainment of the great Number of them, which on that Occaſion was ſo neceſſary, tho' conducted with the greateſt Frugality, has amounted to a conſiderable Expence: But as the ſecuring thoſe People to the Britiſh Intereſt, is ſo much for the Service of his Majeſty and the Benefit of his Subjects, I was glad of the Opportunity of endeavouring to effect it, by making thoſe Indians ſenſible, that it was their Intereſt to have the Engliſh for their Friends.

WILLIAM BULL.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, to the Honourable WILLIAM BULL Eſq; Preſident, &c.

May it pleaſe your Honour.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects now met in Aſſembly, return your Honour our ſincere and hearty Thanks for your Speech this Day delivered to us, and beg Leave to aſſure your Honour that 'tis with equal Concern, that we find the Small-Pox ſtill continues in Charles-Town, as we can't with Reaſon expect the Attendance of ſeveral of our Members who have not had that Diſtemper, to aſſiſt in the publick Affairs.

We conſider the Deſertion of our Slaves as a Matter of very ill Conſequence to the Eſtates and Properties of the People of this Province; and if ſome ſpeedy and effectual Care is not taken to prevent it before it becomes more general, it may in time prove of the utmoſt Diſadvantage.

We can in ſo thin a Houſe only aſſure your Honour, that we ſhall give our ſtricteſt teſt Attention to ſuch Matters as your Honour has recommended to us as abſolutely neceſſary for the preſent Service; and that we ſhall at all times be ready to exert our ſelves to the utmoſt for his Majeſty's Honour and Intereſt, and the Safety and Welfare of the People we repreſent.

By Order of the Houſe,
